Kris Blohm is a Managing Director in the M&A practice at Kaufman Hall and also co-leads the firm's Financial Sponsor coverage efforts. He has more than 20 years of healthcare financial and strategic advisory experience across multiple healthcare verticals. Kris counsels executives and boards nationwide on a broad range of transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, partnerships, divestitures, joint ventures, strategic investments, as well as other partnership and affiliation structures.

Prior to Kaufman Hall, Kris was Executive Director in the healthcare investment banking group at Stifel. His responsibilities included the origination and execution of corporate finance and M&A transactions in the healthcare services, information technology, and medical technology sectors. He previously held positions in healthcare investment banking at Cowen & Company and Société Générale, as well as healthcare investing at Galen Partners, a private equity firm.

Kris regularly speaks on the topic of healthcare partnerships at both industry and investor conferences. He holds a B.S.M. in Finance and an M.A. in Accounting from Tulane University.
