The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute's programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. The materials published herein are written by members of the bar who volunteer their time and services to PBI. Commentary, opinions, or views expressed by those authors are not necessarily the views of PBI. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should always research original sources of authority.

This book is included in PBI's automatic update service. PBI will periodically publish supplements or new editions to keep the book up to date. Unless you have opted out when ordering the book, we will send you a notice when the book is being updated. You will then have the option of returning the notice declining the update; if we do not receive the cancellation notice from you, you will receive the update at a reduced price with an invoice. If you do not want to keep the update, you may return it to us with no further obligation.

It is PBI's mission to provide Pennsylvania lawyers with continuing legal education (in the form of seminars, books, disks, and tapes) that is timely, practical, cost-effective, and of the highest possible quality. You can count on us to keep you up to date in this important area of practice.

If you do not want to be part of this service, please call Customer Service at 800-247-4724 and ask that we remove your name from the list of those who will receive updates to this book.
