KIDSVoice ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS, OFFICER ASSIGNMENTS FOR 2016

PITTSBURGH – November 25, 2015 – KidsVoice, a Pittsburgh-based child advocacy organization, is pleased to welcome three new members to its Board of Directors: Chuck Moser of Cisco Systems, Inshirah Muhamut of Sauer Holdings, and Jeff Letwin of Saul Ewing.

Tom Shields, formerly of Douglas Oil & Gas, was elected President of KidsVoice. He is also the Development Committee Chair. Other KidsVoice officers are: Bill Guttman (Vice President), Michael Yoon (Treasurer).

Jason D'Amico of Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney was elected Vice President of KidsVoice Pennsylvania. Other KidsVoice Pennsylvania officers are: Michael Yoon (President), Ed Kabala (Treasurer).

More about the new board members:

Chuck Moser is the Region Manager for Cisco Systems, having previously worked in sales at several other technology companies, including Boston Scientific. He also spent six years as a Special Operations Officer in the US Navy.

Inshirah Muhamut grew up in the Philadelphia area and now works in the HR field. She recently joined Sauer Holdings, Inc., a national mechanical contracting firm, as their Benefits Specialist. She previously worked at Brunner and Giant Eagle. Inshirah volunteers at the Carnegie Library and The Neighborhood Academy.

Jeff Letwin is an attorney at Saul Ewing, where he represents businesses in complex matters including corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, securities, franchising, municipal and government services, franchise law, real estate finance and development. He also works with government and economic development agencies, including representing the Allegheny County Airport Authority.

He is active politically, and has served several boards including: the Port Authority of Allegheny County, the City of Pittsburgh Planning Commission, the Allegheny County Sanitary, VisitPittsburgh, and Leadership Pittsburgh.

KidsVoice is a non-profit agency that advocates in court and in the community for abused and neglected children. It is a voice of hope and advocacy for children who cannot always speak for themselves.
