

The Pittsburgh
Symphony Orchestra invites you to Law Night

Friday, March 28
Heinz Hall

*Mingle with members of the Pittsburgh law community
plus law students and alumni.*

Cocktails, Networking & Dinner at 6:30 pm
“American Fanfare” at 8:00 pm

The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra will be the centerpiece of a program featuring some of the most beloved works of American composers, including the Overture to Candide by Leonard Bernstein, Appalachian Spring by Aaron Copland, and George Gershwin's An American in Paris among others.

This event is supported by Duquesne University and the University of Pittsburgh

Tickets start at $55 and include dinner* and the concert.

To purchase your Law Night tickets, please call Erin Lynn at 412.392.3324 or email elynn@pittsburghsymphony.org

*Cocktails and dinner will be held in the Dorothy Porter Simmons Regency Rooms in the lower level of Heinz Hall

SERIES SPONSOR

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS
PROGRAM SPONSOR

AMERICAN EAGLE
OUTFITTERS